

AMERICAN ROULETTE 3D

Evoplay Entertainment offers to play the 3D version of the classic American Roulette. Realistic gaming process will not leave indifferent any casino lover and this beautiful game. From the first steps, the player will get into the atmosphere of a luxurious room, appreciate the detailed design of the game table and the perfectly refined mechanics of the game. And most importantly – the player can change the camera angle, adjusting the game to own preferences. The rules of American Roulette comply with the classical canons. The roulette contains 38 cells, including a bet on zero and double zero. The goal of the player is to guess which cell the ball will fall on after rotating the wheel. For the convenience of the players on the American Roulette game screen there is a field with ten last results that make it easy to analyze and think through next move.
